Seniors (Active Adults (50+))

Chinese Opera

Join the Chinese Opera group that plays traditional Chinese string and percussion instruments, while providing a strong rhythmic accessory to the acting and singing of the Chinese culture. This group enjoys practicing and playing their instruments, theater plays and songs, while enhancing the artistic roots and history.

Chinese Brush Painting

The single most astonishing fact about Chinese brush painting; is that each brush stroke is a defining move that produces a portion of the painting that is neither improved upon nor corrected. The artist paints with rapid, mentally constructed strokes transporting a "mind image" on mulberry paper. Chinese brush painting is meant to be more than a representation of an object: it is also a symbolic expression.

Enhance Fitness
